CHIEF SEALTH HIGH SCHOOL

Much has already been said about Chief Sealth. Monuments have been constructed in his honor; our city bears his name. We attend the high school named after him. A great deal of the tradition that accompanies the Chief's life is legendary. Nevertheless, nothing disputes the fact that the Chief was a "leader."

The Chief was not a dynamic man. His success lies in his respect for the individual. He believed that an individual should have the peace of mind to accept the things he could not change, the courage to change the things he could, and the understanding to know the difference.

We dedicate this issue of CACHE to the memory of the Chief, and to the students who attend Chief Sealth High School.

Chief Sealth was a symbol of many things to his people. He was a man dedicated to his beliefs, and he upheld them with wisdom and integrity.

The Chief accepted defeats and triumphs courageously. In the eyes of his people, he was a teacher, a leader, and an individual. He taught his people the merit of careful decision, the importance of having the conviction to carry out that decision. By his example, he taught them that friendship was the inevitable law of life. Tradition tells us that he did not equate tyranny with leadership. Sympathy and understanding of the needs of his people were paramount.

Above all, the Chief was an individual, a person not bound by convention or tradition. He met the challenge of a changing society with intelligence and courage. The great task of making the Chief a friend of the people is a great task, and a greater man, will be remembered for many of the ages.

The Chief of the School pays tribute to this leader of the people, and the ideas for which he lived. As the Chief says to his people, so today our school leads us into, but prepares us for the future. He created a civilization out of a wilderness, and in essence is what an education does for a student. He showed his people how to make their lives fruitful and happy. In high school, we only begin to discover the real meanings in life and begin to know where and how to find real happiness. The very ideals which endeared the Chief to his people can be a goal for every high school student.

1. The first part of the document discusses the importance of maintaining accurate records of all transactions and the role of the accounting department in ensuring the integrity of the financial statements.

The task set before us, whether it relates to art, craft, or philosophy ceases to be a task, but a challenge. Man lives with the challenge and it becomes a part of him as the spirit stimulates the mind to victory over the problem. The man who is brave enough to meet the challenge reaps the rich rewards of self satisfaction and pride — rewards far more precious than the material treasures sought by the unknowing.

FACULTY

The first of these is the fact that the government has been unable to achieve its target of 10% for the year. This is due to a number of factors, including the fact that the government has been unable to secure the necessary funding for the programme. This has led to a number of delays and a lack of progress. The second factor is the fact that the government has been unable to secure the necessary support from the public. This has led to a number of protests and a lack of confidence in the government. The third factor is the fact that the government has been unable to secure the necessary support from the private sector. This has led to a number of delays and a lack of progress.

IN MEMORY OF JOHN FITZGERALD KENNEDY

Reprinted from the book JOHN F. KENNEDY: A FAMILY ALBUM by Mark Shaw. By permission of the John F. Kennedy Library, Boston, Massachusetts. Copyright 1964 by Mark Shaw.

A President is dead! A father is dead!

The day is dark and cold

For John F. Kennedy,

A man! A father! A President is dead!

The funeral is a mournful funeral march

Give grief a voice

The church bells' tolling strips our conscience to the bone

And shamelessly we cry

The clatter of the horses' hoofs

Beat steadily upon the eardrums of the mind

Across, the living shadows plod behind

The nation, searching for solace in the wisdom of God's ways

Black is the color of the day

Black is the shame, and black the mystery of death

But as the shadows of the afternoon fall fast

The national anthem fills the air

Taps chills the hearts

The eternal flame is lit

John Kennedy

A man! A father! A President

Is laid to his eternal rest

Sleep, sleep, my President

The night has come

Your weary day need rest

Your family, men and women everywhere need rest

And you need rest

God gives, God takes, and God protects us all

Your son John-John

Your daughter Caroline,

Your Jacqueline,

Your dreams of peace on earth, and good will for all men

Will be protected by your Maker

Sleep peacefully. Sleep, sleep

Sleep your eternal, restful, noble sleep

The Sophomore Class has completed a successful year at Sealth although it was the first year for many of the students.

The class of '66 began the year with the annual Sophomore-sponsored pep assembly. The success of the assembly spurred the Sophomores on to greater recognition when the outcome of the canned food drive was announced. Their dance, "In the Shadows," was well attended and enjoyed by all.

The class of 1966 has an exciting year to look back on, but an even more exciting two years ahead of them.

SOPHOMORE HONOR SOCIETY

Sealth Honor Society is an organization for students excelling in their academic work. Each member of the Society deserves special recognition for initiative and determination. Every Sophomore member affiliated with the group had to accumulate a total of at least 28 points throughout the year to qualify for membership. In totaling these points, four points are given for an "A," three points for a "B," and two points for a "C."

EXCHANGE STUDENTS

Leena Oanen and Barbara Brumfield

Leena Oanen, a vivacious eighteen-year-old red head, has been living with Barbara Brumfield since her arrival from Tampere, Finland. Leena is here as part of an exchange program sponsored by the International Christian Youth Exchange. She plans to return to Finland sometime this summer. Leena hopes to study linguistics at the University of Helsinki in preparation to becoming a foreign language teacher.

Christi Hansen is hostess to a native of Mexico City, Maria Lusia Corominas, known to Sealth students as Marilu. Marilu finds American life interesting and exciting, but hectic. Marilu is planning to travel throughout the Northwest before returning home.

Christi Hansen and Marilu Corominas

Ralph Dickey and Fred Layer

Fred Layer, the nineteen-year-old exchange student from Salzback, Germany, has been living with Ralph Dickey during the school year. This versatile, intelligent youth was sponsored by the International Christian Youth Exchange. Fred will return home in early August to his job as an apprentice in a German factory.

SPORTS

The Seahawks — Southern District High School — The Chief Sea th Student Body — awarded for its spirited support of the team. In spite of the odds — mud rain — and adverse conditions — our team proved victorious — on. The enthusiasm and coaching staff spurred the team to Turkey Day. This, however, is just a beginning. Let us remember the 1963 football season as a pace setter for the tremendous spirit and drive that will inevitably follow.

Although all of Sealth's track squad has had a good season, we have received special recognition through the accomplishments of Dave Kessler.

On April 17 he high jumped 6' 2 $\frac{3}{4}$ " which is the new Sealth Stadium record. Going into the finals, Dave was top contender in the high jump in the Metro League.

To thee we will be loyal, faithful, and sincere.

As one we sing her glory, here's where our dreams all lie.

Hail to our Alma Mater; Hail to Sealth High!

JUNIORS

During the past year, the members of the Class of 1965 displayed their initiative and spirit by supporting the different activities and efforts of the other classes.

In November, the Junior class sponsored the Cheering Game a traditional inter-class pep contest.

One month later, our lunchroom was transformed into a perfect setting for "Lanterns in the Snow," the Junior Dance. The highlight of the dance was the elaborate decorations ranging from an obese snowman to an English street scene.

Mr. Davis must be commended for his willing participation as the Junior Class Advisor. Also, we especially acknowledge the class officers, for without the combined efforts and talents of these individuals, the class of 1965 could not rise to its present status.

JUNIOR HONOR SOCIETY

These Juniors have shown through their academic achievements that they are qualified to become members of the Honor Society. In their Junior year, a total of 56 points is needed for membership in the Society. Although the students can carry points over from their Sophomore year, each additional point is progressively more difficult to earn. Behind each of these points are hours of constant studying.

PRODUCTIONS

The Night of January 16th, the first play of the 1964 drama season, set the stage for original and entertaining activities which the Sealth Drama Department undertook during the year. The unique cast of this play included a jury chosen from the audience.

With the next production, Harvey, came Sealth's first "Premiere Night." The Drama Department with the cooperation of the Language Arts Department invited students to see the play on Thursday night preceding the usual Friday and Saturday night performances.

... theater as they were led backstage and ... of the excitement and frenzy before every performance. The night ended with refreshments in the Green Room served by hostesses dressed in formals to fit the occasion.

Throughout the year the Drama classes also presented children's plays to the neighboring elementary schools including Arbor Heights, Highland Park, High Point, E. C. Hughes, and Roxhill. Among the productions presented were Peter Rabbit and King Cole's Court. Governor Rosellini extended his personal congratulations to the students for their fine efforts and success of these plays.

The Sealh student body salutes the Drama Department on a fine year of entertainment.

The class of '64, alive with enthusiasm and spirit, has established these past years a record of accomplishments unsurpassed by any other class in the history of the school.

The Seniors began the year with their traditional enthusiasm by winning the Cheering Chalice for the third consecutive year. They then stepped into the flurry of exciting events the year was to hold, including the highlight of all the Prom.

Wistfully the Seniors now look back over their high school careers — its joys and successes, its sorrows and frustrations. They have acquired many wonderful memories and experiences. This class will be remembered for many years to come for their academic excellence and contributions to all phases of school activity.

June 5 brings to an end the special events that highlighted the senior year of the Class of 1964. As we look over the past year, we recall the various classes and activities with pride and nostalgia.

We cheered the Seahawks to their first Southern Division football championship and walked off with our third consecutive "steering wheel" thus retiring it for our class.

We regrettably said good-bye to Mrs. Helen Lucas who left us at the end of the first semester. Certainly, it was the home of our helpful and enthusiastic class adviser. We gratefully accepted Mrs. Amelia Berger's experience and advice which kept us going until June.

We howled at the antics of Mr. Ross, Mr. Drick, Mr. Johnston, and Miss Cordova who proved that it really was time to "Rise and Shine" at our Senior Breakfast.

We added to Chief Seal's traditions by inaugurating "Moon Dressed in cutoffs, sweatshirts, and tennie-runners. We danced to "Moonshine Memories," our prom theme.

We applauded our Chief and Princess Seal at the annual Seal's Salute ceremonies.

We traveled to Gold Creek for our Senior Trip. Swimming, ice skating, golf, boating and dancing filled the day's activities.

We danced to the music of Kerouac and his orchestra at the Hub which set the atmosphere for "Moonshine Memories" which was aptly selected as the Senior Prom theme.

We shared the honor brought to us by our two straight A students, Ron Campbell and Ingrid Karlstrom, who tied for valedictorian.

We look back over our years at Seal's. But we also look ahead to Commencement, for we realize that it is not the end but actually a new beginning.

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

The 1964 "SCOUT" Staff expresses its appreciation to the following for their time, effort, and cooperation in putting out this year's annual:

L & H Printing Company, especially Mrs. Marion Johnson for her many extra hours of help and advice.

Howland Studios, especially Mr. Howland Johnson for his many helpful suggestions.

Mr. James Wehn, for his most generous help with information and advice about the life and traditions of Chief Seattle and for permitting the Staff to take pictures of his work.

Mr. Robert Mann, for permitting the use of the picture in the John F. Kennedy Memorial section.

Mr. W. J. Polshuber, for the material received on Mr. Thomas Miller.

Mr. Howard Haydon and Royd Marts for all the extra hours of picture taking and developing for the annual pictures.

The South Western Staff for its useful contributions to photography and write-ups.

The South Student Body for its general cooperation.
